

La Plata County – Registered District Advisory

Committee (RDAC) Registration/Renewal Form

Registered District Advisory Committees (RDAC) provide organized citizen groups the opportunity to engage in the district plan amendment process and offer comments on land use permits requiring public notice.

An RDAC must consist of at least seven (7) members, with two (2) designated contacts for the Community Development Department.

RDACs must comply with all other requirements outlined in LUC Sec. 63-6.

Whether you are forming a new RDAC or submitting annual renewal information, please complete the fields below. If you have any questions, please contact the Planning Division office manager at Planning@lpcgov.org or by phone at (970) 382-6260.
